Hymn for a summer day

Maltbie Davenport Babcock, a minister in upstate New York at the turn of the 20th century, often walked near Niagara Falls to enjoy the view of Lake Ontario and the surrounding scenery. He'd tell his wife he was "going to see the Father's world."

After Babcock's death in 1901, his wife, Katherine, published a book of his writings, including the 16-verse poem "My Father's World." Franklin Sheppard set it to music in 1915, using two verses of text for each hymn stanza.

This is my Father's world,
and to my listening ears
all nature sings, and round me rings
the music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world:
I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas;
his hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world,
the birds their carols raise,
the morning light, the lily white,
declare their maker's praise.
This is my Father's world:
he shines in all that's fair;
in the rustling grass I hear him pass;
he speaks to me everywhere
he shines in all that's fair;
in the rustling grass I hear him pass;
he speaks to me everywhere.

Summer Sunday Picnics

There will be potluck picnic lunches immediately following services on June 7th.. The theme for this picnic will be Salads. The church is providing Shrimp Cocktail, chocolate chip oatmeal cookies, and yummy yeast rolls. If you don't feel like cooking, visit the Front Beach Wal-mart deli. They make several different types of very good salads. Come and enjoy the food and fellowship!

Covered dishes can be brought before church and left in the walk-in cooler in Gulf Treat. Food will be set-up in Gulf Treat after worship and you can choose to eat inside or out.

A New Vision- Revitalizing as we follow God's call in- to the world.

"I was hungry and you fed me, I was thirsty and you gave me a drink, I was homeless and you gave me a room, I was shivering and you gave me clothes, I was sick and you stopped to visit, I was in prison and you came to me...I'm telling the solemn truth: Whenever you did one of these things to someone overlooked or ignored, that was me—you did it to me." (Matt. 25, The Message)

At our session retreat last month, a new vision statement for the church was discerned and adopted. Our new Vision Statement is: "Transforming Lives by the Love of Christ Jesus through Witness, Mission, and Evangelism." The Ruling Elders have each committed to be a visionary leader in a particular mission focus area for our church (Witness and Evangelism, Compassion, Care, Worship, Spiritual Development and Education, Building and Grounds, Stewardship). I have asked them to listen to and pray about this new Vision, form teams and committees to discern ministry plans of action, and start doing the ministry God is calling us to do. In the passage from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus has given us a very detailed and clear focus of where our actions must begin and where they will find fulfillment. This should guide our movement toward the Vision that always lies before us.

We also have our Mission Statement to guide our steps: "To be a place where the community can come together in Christ and provide, through God and his Word, love, comfort, and joy to all." There are opportunities everywhere to "come together," and to be "love, comfort, joy" to others beyond the walls of this church. In my experience, when we follow God's call into the world, this is where we experience renewal and revitalization. How we do this can be discovered as we seek answers to the question, "Where do you need us to join you, Jesus?" We do not have to look outside of our community, let alone some of the neighborhoods surrounding us, to find the hunger, thirst, homelessness, nakedness, and the imprisonment which Jesus expects us to do something about. If we look through the eyes of faith, we know each of these are physical as well as spiritual realities in the life of our community, neighbors, family, friends, and in ourselves.

As a missional church, our energy has to be used to reconnect ourselves with our community's needs and as partners with what is already being done for and by the people. If we want to see a future together as a renewed and revitalized growing church, we have to refocus our vision away from our own maintenance and preservation as a church. Otherwise, the question we have to answer is: what are we trying to preserve—God's vision or ours?

I believe that when we serve with vision, we will be energized in our witness, mission, and evangelism. We will have more than enough "energy" left over to care for ourselves and our church. That is one of the mysterious truths I have experienced over and over again in my journey with Jesus and thriving congregations.

God always fills the vessel that is emptying itself for others.

Another "truth" the Session and each of you need to hold on to is that the mission of the church is bigger than the membership. This allows us to faithfully dream God's dreams and see God's vision through a bigger picture than we might otherwise create ourselves. As we reach out, connect, and serve others through our witness, mission, and evangelism, each of you will be part of the mission of Christ through the Church.

So, I'd like to hear what you think and want to say about our church and its new Vision. You are invited to meet with me on Sunday, June 28th from 3-4:30p at Gulfstream, to talk about what you see and hear through this new Vision and the ministries inspired in response to it. I want to hear your stories about the church, what inspires you, what you feel challenged by, and what you believe God may be calling us, calling you, to do now and in the future through ministries of Witness, Mission, and Evangelism.

Jesus calls us to discipleship in order to share the good news of God's love. Expect to meet Christ in one another. Expect to experience renewal. Watch our church be revitalized by the power of the Holy Spirit through our sharing of Witness, Mission, and Evangelism.

Let's take these words with us on the journey:

May we now depart,

knowing the invitation of God

to move from comfort to insecurity—

so we may move from what we know to what we have yet to discover;

May we now follow,

knowing the invitation of Christ Jesus to move from the safety of our own making to a place of risk for his kingdom—

so we may move from where we have been to where we have yet to go;

May we now listen,

knowing the invitation of the Holy Spirit to move us from self to selflessness—

so we may move from how we once knew God to how we have yet to discover who and where God is at work.

Be committed to sharing in the ministries of Witness, Mission, and Evangelism, through the invitation of Christ Jesus, our Lord and Savior, who made the invitation to, "Follow me," without saying where he was going. His promise to you on such a journey is transformation and a deepening relationship with the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Pray and ask, "Where do you need us to join you, Jesus?"

In Christ's love and service,

Pastor Bonnie

The missional church is such an ingrained part of the surrounding community, that there is a genuine and heartfelt desire to see good things come about in the community. Furthermore, as people of faith, the dreams are big God-sized ones which will only come about with God's favor and blessing. The missional church is recognized and loved for its contribution in the neighborhood. (2015 GBPC Session Retreat)

FOOD PANTRY

The Food Pantry's mission is to increase access to food for hungry people, and empower them to help each other.

Report from Food Pantry— April 2015 our food pantry served 145 people a total of 1305 meals.

Needs:

Canned Chili and canned Fruit

Food Pantry needs volunteers. We are short 3 people. Training happens while you work. There is always one experienced person on each shift. We are open 9am-12noon Mon-Fri. This is a great Mission and a good way to serve the Lord. Please call Beve Lutz if you think you can give us a hand serving the poor and hungry. (859) 235-7349. Thx

The Pantry is very, very low on the hygiene and cleaning products at this time. The Pantry Policy has been to buy nutritious foods only.

So we are asking for your donations of the following: shampoo, razors, deodorant, liquid dish soap, toilet paper, paper towels, can openers. I recommend you purchase small travel size or sample sizes of the hygiene products. We break down packages with multiple items and distribute just one at a time, i.e. one roll of toilet paper per client, etc.

I have begun shopping at Dollar Tree for Pantry food. I've noticed good buys on hygiene and cleaning products there as well. It sure helps stretch that dollar. My plea to the congregations is to search your heart and if you can help us with these non-nutritious products for a few months that would be wonderful.

Thank you for your faithful and continuous support of this Mission. May God bless each of you.

Beve Lutz, Elder
